

Barcelona, Thursday, June 29, 2023.- ACAve celebrated last night, at the Red Fish restaurant - Club Patí Vela on Barcelona beach, a new edition of the Member's Night, with the attendance of more than 200 guests who enjoyed the sector's annual meeting. The event had the support and participation of Barcelona City Council, ERGO, Qatar Airlines and the Dominican Republic as sponsors.

Jordi Martí, president of ACAve, highlighted in his speech the good prospects of the sector for this season, in which bookings have far exceeded the figures of 2019, and ventured that it would be a year "of a lot of work". During the evening, Catiana Tur, now manager of the entity, and Maria Pla, responsible for events, were also thanked for their 25 years of service, whose professionalism and commitment Martí, on behalf of the entire board, highlighted .

The event was attended by representatives of travel agencies, the hotel sector, the MICE field linked to tourism, airlines and railways, technology companies, journalists, as well as institutional representatives of the tourism sector, among them the director General of Tourism, Marta Domènech. The Nit del Soci has become an unmissable meeting for the sector, and it starts the summer season in a relaxed and relaxed atmosphere.

Images of the event at this link: <https://we.tl/t-YuXKc4slcU>

